Lone Star Skiers and Adventure Club

The Prez Says!

I have noticed on the news that the snow is starting early this year in the high country. As a result, I start to think about skiing and I dream of a banner year with lots of fluffy white powder. Skiing also means to me a group of Lone Star friends gathered around a fireplace with adult beverages laughing and telling stories of their adventures.

We are going back to an old favorite area - Whitefish, Montana in 2024. Everyone loves this ski town, with its unpretentious wild west vibe and a great mountain. This is a Texas Ski Council trip, so you will be able to see your old friends from all the other Texas ski clubs. Again, there will be non skiing activities if you don't want to ski or if you are like me and you just want to ski a day or two. All the information is on the website for you to review.

The snow is falling. It is time to lock in your winter plans and go with your buddies. Some of us have been going on trips together for over 25 years or more. Let's do a few more runs together. Cheers to the good times!

See you there! Elizabeth Lutton President.

October Happy Hour at The Londoner

A Culinary Tour Through Tuscany Oct. 10-18, 2023

Tuscany brought us beautiful weather to enjoy the amazing views everywhere we went.

Our hotel was a bit remote for the nearby town, but there was plenty to see and do. Day 3 found LSS in Florence, Italy and we got to view the famous statue of David. A walking tour of Florence afforded us its history and beauty. Next we went to a truffle farm and watched the truffle dog sniff out delicious truffles. She even ate one herself they were that good! The group tasted truffle favored honey and pasta!

Day 4 shown brightly as we headed off to Cooking class to make ravioli and tagliatelle. They cooked up our hard work with a delicious lunch and we enjoyed the winery's vintages. We headed to another winery for more tastings and a dinner under the stars. Day 5 had us traveling to Montalcino to enjoy a multi-sensory experience of wine and music! Dinner was a traditional Italian at a local Farmhouse. (We also slipped a Pecorino cheese tasting in between travels.)

Day 6 took us to Siena where we walked the area of the famous Palio horse race and learned its history. We had time to wander about and have lunch before going to San Gimignano for art and gelatos. Day 7 was an optional tour to Pisa to take cheesy pictures of the Leaning Tower of Pisa and walk the grounds. Next we headed to Lucca high above the valleys offering spectacular views. Dinner was a 7-course beef dinner at the restaurant of Italy's most famous butcher. The meal was divine!

Our last day was spent traveling to Lake Trasimeno where we took the ferry the Isle Maggiore and dined on local beef or lake fish. The group explored the island before heading back to our farewell dinner and early flights out.

2024 Train Ride and Tyler Rose Festival

Fifteen of your LS Skiers did a real TX weekend riding the rails and getting their royal on!

We spent a few hours riding through the piney woods from Palestine to Rusk TX and back on the TX State vintage railway and then ate lunch on a beautiful Rusk station property complete with a lake. So nice to be back outside after our brutal summer!

Then we all headed to the same hotel to overnight in Tyler and had a fabulous dinner at The Grove, again enjoying a beautiful evening outside. Bright and early Saturday came with a free breakfast that was very hot and handy.

Saturday morning the Tyler Rose Festival parade started at 9am. The beautiful Rose Festival Queen and her court rode on floats, and every band in town treated us to marching music. Many fancy cars and the Shriners were running the street. Candy was being thrown to all the kids young and old but no chocolate 😊 The Rose Festival is a very well-known and long-standing event weekend.

After the parade, we headed to a historic home and enjoyed a brief tour followed by the arts and crafts display along with food trucks for a lunch again outside. We gathered chairs and circled our wagon enjoying the usual festival food. It was warm, so I particularly enjoyed ice cream.

From 1-3pm Saturday afternoon, the Queen's Tea took place in the Tyler Rose Garden and Arboretum. It was time to take photos of these beautiful young women in their 'film' themed gowns. The girls raise money to pay for their lavish dresses and must interview for a spot. The court were all 21-22-year-old towny gals who can only be in this pageant once. Out of town gals were also in the court and called Duchesses. Handsome young men were chosen to escort these lovely ladies. If you don't know, Tyler is an oil-rich town, and I have to say you could tell that during the tea with beautifully dressed court Moms and Dads 😊 Tyler also has UT Tyler.

Later most of us took an afternoon nap before having dinner at Pino del Lago on a private lake. It was another perfect weather evening!

Sunday morning, we bid each other good-bye and hit the road to home. Everyone enjoyed this Texas get-away. If I ever go back, I want to attend the Queen's Coronation as I'm sure it is quite a production now that I have experienced this festival. Thanks everyone who enjoyed a unique couple of days.
